and the whole of the instalment credited in repayment of the principal. Under G.O. of 28-10-02 the first instalment fell due on 31-5-04 and towards this the mutt paid Rs 4915-5-6 in April 04 and Rs 7584-10-6 in may 04. The 1st instalment was therefore paid before the due date and the mutt is entitled to the remission of the interest for one year ending on 31-5-04, allowed by G.O. of 26-10-05.

The whole of the next instalment which fell due on 31-5-05 was not paid in time — only Rs 9410-6-0 were paid before the end of may 05 & the balance was paid in June 05. The mutt is not therefore entitled to any remission of interest in respect of this payment

Submitted to His Highness.

I invite reference to the order of His Highness, dated 10th October 1905, granting certain concessions to the Sringeri Matt in the matter of the repayment of the loan granted to the Matt from the Personal Estate of His Highness.

The order does not specify the date from which the concession was to be given effect to. When the order was passed in October 1905, two annual instalments of the loan had become due and had been paid by the Matt more or less punctually.

The Comptroller has appropriated the amount to the reduction of the accumulated interest as well as for the interest due for 1903-04 and 1904-05.

Encl to Papers under Perusal

The Agent of the Matt now prays that the order of October 1905, may be given effect to from 1904, which amounts to a prayer for the remission of the interest on the capital amount of the loan for the years 1903-04 and 1904-05.

I submit the papers for orders.

Dated, Chikmagalur, 20th June 1906.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that Government, vide their Proceedings No Fl.2652-4 / Ft.H.117.05-1, dated the 26th October 1905, were pleased to order that on the instalment of Rs 12500 being paid by the Sringeri Matt punctually in each year, the interest due for that year should be remitted and the whole of the instalment credited in prepayment of the principal. The Comptroller in his Balance Sheet prepared up to end of June 1905, credited the Rs 25000 paid by the Matt between April 1904 and June 1905 exclusively towards the interest

due on the loan which amounted to Rs. 26362.8.6 and showed a balance of Rs 109844.0.2 towards principal and Rs. 1362.8.6 towards interest (vide copy of his docket No. 4441/Loans 772, dated the 10th February 1906, enclosed). The Agent, Sungei Matt, who was asked to signify his acceptance to the account being correct, points out that in G.O. quoted above, no date has been fixed from which the concession has to take effect, that the Matt has paid the instalments punctually between the date of his application (22nd June 1903) and that of the G.O. under adverting, and requests that in this view the orders of Government may be given effect to restrospectively from the year 1904. I beg therefore to submit copy of his letter No. 93, dated the 12th June 1906, on the subject for favourable consideration and early orders.
